

A PILOT JOINT INSPECTION OF
CHILD PROTECTION ARRANGEMENTS
IN THE SOUTHERN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE TRUST AREA

CJI, RQIA AND ETI WORKED AS A JOINT INSPECTION TEAM LOOKING AT THE PARTNERSHIP APPROACH OF THE:

Police Service
of Northern Ireland

ea Education
Authority

Southern Health and Social Care Trust

A PILOT JOINT INSPECTION OF
CHILD PROTECTION ARRANGEMENTS
IN THE SOUTHERN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE TRUST AREA

STRENGTHS AND AREAS FOR DEVELOPMENT

PROMOTING THE CHILD'S RIGHT TO BE SAFE

We found a strong culture of promoting the child's right to be safe among those we spoke to.

The voice of the child needed better reflection in records.

A PILOT JOINT INSPECTION OF
CHILD PROTECTION ARRANGEMENTS
IN THE SOUTHERN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE TRUST AREA

STRENGTHS AND AREAS FOR DEVELOPMENT

PREVENTING HARM

There was evidence of a timely response when risk of harm was acute.

We found examples of schools, the Police and the Trust working together to engage children in support services.

A PILOT JOINT INSPECTION OF
CHILD PROTECTION ARRANGEMENTS
IN THE SOUTHERN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE TRUST AREA

STRENGTHS AND AREAS FOR DEVELOPMENT

PROTECTING CHILDREN
WHEN RISKS ARE IDENTIFIED

Individual staff with expertise and skills made a difference to outcomes for children.

The quality of records to evidence how children were being protected needed improved.